COLUMBIA

A letter was received from James P. Little, former correspondent of The Bulletin, now residing in Hartford, enclosing the fee for his removal of membership in the Columbia Red Cross. Mr. Little's health is fairly good at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Wright of Abington, Mass., were in town last week Friday and Saturday, guests of Joseph and Eliza Hutchins. Mrs. Wright is a cousin of the Hutchins and known to the older residents of Columbia as Miss Louise Cheney, who lived during her childhood with her aunt, Mrs. Simon Hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Wright visited friends in town and left for Lebanon.

Owing to the illness of Clayton S. Hunt, the driver of the high school truck, the pupils have been taken to Willimantic in the car by Raymond E. Clarke. Some of the pupils are still detained at home by illness.

Owing to conditions produced by the storm traveling on the country roads is difficult, especially for automobiles. Very few of these vehicles are on the state roads and it is with difficulty that they get through the soft ground. One car on Chestnut Hill was mired, and had to be pulled out by oxen.

Randall Porter has given up his business position in Hartford and returned to Wesleyan university, Middletown. Since the termination of the war the courses of study which had been discontinued or discontinued have been restored to their normal basis, making it desirable for him to finish his college course.

The holiday recess having ended Miss Harriet Porter has returned to the Walnut Hill school, Natick, Mass., where she is teacher.

Dwight A. Lyman is suffering with a severe attack of sciatica, while Mrs. Lyman is afflicted with rheumatism or neuritis.

On account of the storm Wednesday evening no meeting of the Grange was held.

The winter parties which were to have been held Thursday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross, was postponed to Friday evening.

Women seldom stutter. Probably it is because they have so much to say, and haven't time.

DANIELSON

Earl Wilbur, who has been overseas with an infantry regiment, has arrived at Newport News. He is expected at his home here within a few days. Mr. Wilbur formerly was employed as a fireman and brakeman by the N. Y. N. H. and H. R. R. company.

The Baptist Sunday school of Danielson has engaged in a contest with the Baptist Sunday school of Willimantic. The Willimantic school led one point on last Sunday's attendance.

Cosider A. Young, who has been in the south, at New Smyrna, Fla., since early in the fall, has returned to Danielson to attend the sessions of the legislature as a representative from Killingly.

Chairman Francis E. Storer of the Red Cross Christmas drive in Danielson and vicinity had recorded 1836 members up to Monday morning. It is regarded as very probable that the number will run over 1900 when the final report is made.

Walter Adams, who is in the service at Camp Devens, has received a leave of absence at his home in Danielson.

Colin Campbell is to enter the employ of A. P. Woodward, succeeding George Berry, who has resigned.

Daniel Doyle, who has been through all of the fighting in France with the 102 infantry, has written to relatives here that he is well. He was at Chateau Thierry, St. Mihiel, Argonne and in other famous engagements with the noted regiment.

A troop train hurrying northward for Camp Devens got a cheer from those who saw it here Monday morning, and the soldiers returned the greeting.

J. Arthur Atwood, of the Quinebaug company, stated Monday that practically no orders for cotton goods, but are looking for a revival and for good business after February 1. The mills are now beginning to accumulate a surplus of material, but there is no great quantity of manufactured goods in the market.

That part of the Danielson inn that formerly was used as a cafe is to be refitted for use as a restaurant, the proprietors to be out of town parties. An abandoned bicycle that was taken in charge by Chief MacFarland has been claimed and its ownership established.

John C. Henderson of Westfield, Mass., was a visitor with friends in Danielson Monday.

Letters being received here from members of the 102nd infantry, and dated from the 5th to 12th of December, tell of the routine being in a rest camp and of the hopes of the men that it soon will be on its way home, but no exact date of departure is fixed. There are nearly a dozen young men from this section in the regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jette will be in Boston this week to see their daughter, playing under the name of Miss Gertrude Martell, in a record drama at the Holts street theater. Miss Martell has made a success of her stage career.

No word later than that he was missing in action on a date in October has come from the government to the parents of Alice Redburn. A check for pay due this Danielson soldier came from the government to his parents.

The coughers and there are hundreds of them hereabouts—are not, in cases, protecting themselves to any trouble to protect the people from catching the grip or influenza, though tons of advice have been written on this subject.

The 12-inch water main that is to supply water from Quinebaug lake to the people of the village of Wauregan is practically all laid, but has not been connected up and may not be in operation until next spring.

A 300-gallon tank to be fed in a high ground, just east of the village of Wauregan. A pumping station is to be established at the lake, which is a mile and a half away. Either electric power or power developed by a gasoline engine will be used to force the water through more than two miles of main from the lake to the storage tank.

In Wauregan the mains have been laid, but connections with the houses not completed. The water supply system that is being developed is capable of furnishing all of the villages of the town of Plainfield with an ample amount of pure water, and it is the hope of the town fathers that the Plainfield village will have an opportunity in the not distant future to get their supply from the pretty lake in the southern part of Killingly.

A large force of men has been engaged throughout the fall and so far this winter in laying the main from the lake to Wauregan and doing other work incident to getting the system built.

A Danielson case—that of W. W. Wheatley vs. Fred R. Dubue—will be argued today before the supreme court at Hartford. Harry E. Back of Danielson and Charles E. Sears of Putnam are attorneys for Mr. Wheatley.

The case is an unusual one and since Mr. Wheatley caused Mr. Dubue to be arrested and held in custody, he has been through a long legal process, finally coming to the highest court of the state. In the meantime Mr. Dubue, during Mr. Wheatley's absence, has spent several months in jail at Brooklyn, but was released during the fall.

The attorneys for Mr. Wheatley have submitted the following statement of facts for the supreme court:

The appellant on Sept. 25, 1917, was, and ever since has been, a creditor of the appellee; on said day the appellee recovered judgment and execution 1093 of the General Statutes Revision of 1902, now Section 6143 Revision of 1918, for $23.18 damages and $55.58 costs, the complaint upon which said judgment was rendered averring that said appellee had refused to pay a debt admitted by him to be due and payable to the appellant while having estate and property sufficient from execution sufficient to discharge the same concealed and withheld, so that the same could not be taken by legal process.

Upon this judgment execution was duly issued, and the appellee was committed to the common jail on October 8, 1917, remaining there under said execution until the proceedings were had as disclosed by the record.

It appears that William Penner Woodward, Esq., a Justice of the peace, upon due application made to him, administered to the appellee the oath provided by law in the case of poor debtors, and that the appellee moved for a review as provided by Section 2767 of the General Statutes, Revision of 1902, now Section 1965 of the Revision of 1918, and thereafter proceedings were had as appears by the record, resulting in a judgment rendered by Judge Shumway on May 25, 1918, rejecting the application of the appellee and ordering that said appellee be forthwith released from jail.

In addition to the above facts, the

Cincinnati authority says your troublesome corns just loosen and fall off

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes just loosen in their sockets and fall off the next day if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of a drug called freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

You merely put a drop or two of this freezone on the tender, touchy corn today and instantly the corn stops hurting, then tomorrow sometime you may find the old torturous pest somewhere in your stockings, having fallen off entirely without a particle of soreness, pain or irritation. The skin around and beneath the former corn will be as healthy, pink and smooth as the palm of your hand.

A quarter ounce of freezone is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn and callus, and any druggist will charge but a few cents for it. It is a compound made from ether.

Following, essential for the proper presentation of the issues in this case, were found by the court:

Before said judgment had been rendered in the superior court said appellee paid to his father the amount of a certain promissory note owed by him to his father.

Said appellee began voluntary proceedings in bankruptcy on or about Nov. 20, 1917, and was adjudged a bankrupt on Nov. 28, 1917.

The issue presented to this court is: Was Judge Shumway justified in rejecting the application of the appellant, and in ordering the appellee's release from jail?

Acid-Stomach Destroys Health, Vitality and Strength

Clean out the excess acid from your stomach—it creates poisons that drag you down, rob you of physical power and vitality, make you sickly, weak and unfit.

Learn what it must mean to have in your stomach excess acidity so powerfully destructive to be able to create almost any ailment. For years dentists have been telling you that it's acid that eats off the hard enamel of the teeth and decays them. Think, then, of how much easier it must be for an excess amount of acid to play havoc with the delicate organization of the stomach. Just imagine how one must feel—how weak, unfit, tired, run down and sickly—when acid-stomach gains control! Also, what small chance one has of the recovery of robust health, happiness or success, if this acid is permitted to remain, creating greater and ever greater inroads on your health and strength day after day.

You must remove the excess acid if you want perfect health and strength.

Health that knows no aches or pains anywhere, that gives life a new zest and makes it really worth while. What unspeakable joy it is to have health like that! How you live every minute of the day! How soundly you sleep at night and how refreshed you feel in the morning! How keenly you relish your meals—with what enthusiasm and bounding energy you plunge into the day's work whether it calls for muscular activity or mental keenness—or both!

That is the kind of health we all want and should have. It is your heritage. So don't let an acid-stomach deprive you of your health. Don't let it hold you back. Take the superacidity—acid-stomach—out of your system and back comes health, strength, vitality. Why? Because by getting rid of the excess acid, you will be able to get the full strength out of the food you eat.

Some people think an acid-stomach merely causes indigestion, dyspepsia, bloating, heart-burn, etc. That is a grave mistake. You simply have no idea the long train of physical ills and awful human suffering that are directly traceable to acid-stomach. Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Cirrhosis of the Liver, Biliousness, Anemia, Auto-intoxication, Intestinal Congestion, Severe Headache, Insomnia, Nervousness, Mental Depression, Melancholia, Dizziness, Heart Trouble—yes, even Catarrh, Ulcer and Cancer of the Stomach—all of these disorders can find their original source in that one condition—acid-stomach—superacidity.
